

30 Multiple choice questions

---

1. notebooks, memoirs, personal diaries
  - a. comitia
  - b. commercium
  - c. conscripti
  - d. commentarii

2. assembly of the Roman people summoned in groups by a magistrate
  - a. comitium
  - b. deditio
  - c. comitia
  - d. collegia

3. an open place of assembly
  - a. concilium
  - b. comitia
  - c. comitium
  - d. consilium

4. consuls who held office for the second part of the year
  - a. consules suffecti
  - b. consilium
  - c. consulars
  - d. consules ordinarii

5. assembly of the Roman people sitting and voting in their parishes
  - a. comitia curiata
  - b. comitia tributa
  - c. comitia centuriata
  - d. comitia

6. informers
  - a. delatores
  - b. corvus
  - c. deditio
  - d. cliens

7. foreseeing the future
  - a. deditio
  - b. comitia
  - c. divination
  - d. dignitas

8. the right to enter into a business contract enforceable in roman courts
  - a. comitium
  - b. consilium
  - c. commercium
  - d. connubium

9. assembly of plebeians only
  - a. concilium plebis
  - b. comitium
  - c. consilium
  - d. concilium

10. a body of clients
  - a. dignitas
  - b. cliens
  - c. clientelae
  - d. consulars

11. general name for any assembly or gathering; often used to denote the plebeian assembly
  - a. consilium
  - b. connubium
  - c. concilium
  - d. comitium

12. assembly of the Roman people sitting and voting in their tribes
  - a. comitia tributa
  - b. comitium
  - c. comitia centuriata
  - d. comitia curiata

13. the 'ladder of office' that an aspiring politician was expected to climb: it comprised the official positions of quaestor, aedile (optional), praetor and consul, with age limits for each and set periods between the holding of consecutive positions by one person
- cursus honorum
  - curulis
  - connubium
  - consulars
14. a body of advisers; the consilium principis, the body of advisers summoned by the emperor, was like a privy council
- concilium
  - consilium
  - connubium
  - comitium
15. consuls who held office for only the first part of a year, that is, those entering office on the first of January; these consuls gave their names to the year
- consules suffecti
  - concordia ordinum
  - consulars
  - consules ordinarii
16. surrender or capitulation
- dignitas
  - deditio
  - comitia
  - dolia
17. official title for the four great priestly colleges, also referred to associations of men practicing the same craft or trade
- collegia
  - dolia
  - comitia
  - cliens
18. channels in the walls of public baths through which steam circulated
- concilium
  - concameration
  - comitia
  - commercium

19. curule or official, describing the special magistrates permitted to sit on the curule chair: a curule aedile was the patrician aedile
- comitia
  - curulis
  - corvus
  - cliens
20. the right to contract a legal marriage with a member of another state without forfeiting inheritance or paternity rights
- consilium
  - connubium
  - concilium
  - comitium
21. those who had held the consulship
- consulars
  - corvus
  - consilium
  - concilium
22. harmony of the orders; a concept promoted by Cicero in 63 BC which envisaged a working together of the senatorial and equestrian orders for the benefit of the state
- concilium
  - concordia ordinum
  - consules ordinarii
  - comitia tributa
23. a client or dependent; a free man who entrusted himself to another and received protection in return
- corvus
  - collegia
  - dolia
  - cliens
24. a raven; the name given to a device comprising a grappling spike and a boarding platform, attached to Roman ships during the First Punic War as a means to overcome Rome's inferiority at sea
- corvus
  - comitium
  - curulis
  - cliens

25. the family name
- collegia
  - comitia
  - cognomen
  - corvus
26. assembly of the Roman people sitting and voting in their military centuries
- comitia curiata
  - commentarii
  - comitia tributa
  - comitia centuriata
27. patrician and elected plebeian members of the senate
- conscripti
  - connubium
  - consulars
  - consilium
28. a bedroom in a Roman house
- concilium
  - curulis
  - cubiculum
  - comitium
29. large wine jars
- collegia
  - comitia
  - dignitas
  - dolia
30. prestige
- cliens
  - deditio
  - dolia
  - dignitas